The following resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Jerry Lee were adopted by Oriental Encampment, No. 4, I. O. O. F., at their meeting on Thursday night:

October 12th, 1882.

Chief Patriarch and Officers:

Your committee of condolence beg leave to report as follows:

WHEREAS, On October the 12th, 1876, to-night 6 years ago Patriarch Jerry Lee was initiated into Pledge Encampment and attained the third degree in that order on October 23d, 1876. About the latter part of 1876 Pledge Encampment surrendered its charter, and on August 9th, 1877, Patriarch Jerry Lee, with twenty-one or two more Patriarchs enlisted in the glorious cause in Oriental Encampment, and of which he served until his death.

WHEREAS, In the dispensation of His Providence it has pleased our Creator to remove from our midst our much esteemed and sadly regretted brother and Patriarch, Jerry Lee; therefore

Resolved, That while we humbly bow to the decree of Him who giveth and Him who taketh away, we feel most sensibly that in the death of Patriarch Jerry Lee we have lost an able and impartial officer, a tried and true friend, a kind and hospitable neighbor and companion.

Resolved, That the community in which we live has lost a public officer, honorable and dignified in his dealings, wise and prudent in his counsels, devoted to the public weal.

Resolved, That in testimony of our regard for the lamented deceased we wear the badge of mourning for four weeks.

Resolved, That we tender to the family of Patriarch Jerry Lee, who have lost a warm and attached husband, a kind and indulgent father, and a sincere friend, our heartfelt sympathy in this, their greatest grief.

Resolved, That the Frankfort Roundabout and Yeoman be requested to publish these resolutions; that they be spread upon the record of this Encampment and that a copy thereof be officially communicated to the family of the deceased Patriarch.

All of which are respectfully submitted in F. L. and T.

Off to the Wars.

The following order has been issued by Adjutant General Nuckolls. The McCrory Guards and Nuckolls Guards will leave this city Monday morning by special train for Lexington, in company with the troops from Louisville.

HEADQUARTERS KENTUCKY STATE GUARD,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

No. 52.

1. On the application of the Honorable George N. Brown, Judge of the 16th Judicial District, the following Commands of the Kentucky State Guard are ordered into active service from and after six o'clock, A. M., on the 29th instant, and will remain on duty until further ordered: Four Companies of Major John R. Allen's 3d Battalion, as follows: Blackburn Guards, McCrory Guards, Lexington Guards, Knott Rifles; Nuckolls Guards, Captain Joe L. Rodman; one Company of the 1st Regiment to be detailed by Col. J. B. Castleman, and one section of the Louisville Light Artillery.

Said forces will assemble at Lexington on the day above named and proceed thence, at 9:30 A. M., under command of Major Allen, to Catlettsburg, in Boyd county, by the Lexington and Big Sandy Railway.

Major Allen, with the force under his command, will act in conjunction with, and subordinate to, the civil power, viz: The Sheriff of Boyd county, whilst in transit from Lexington to Catlettsburg and, on arriving at Catlettsburg, he will report to the Hon. Adjutant General.

$100 Reward

Is offered for any case of Catarrh that can't be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally. Price 75 cents.

Akron, Ohio, May 7th, 1880.—Some three years ago I had a horse become very lame from a spavin. I treated it with Kendall's Spavin Cure with marked success. Since then I have sold a great many bottles, and have heard of cures resulting from its use. I am frank to say I can cheerfully recommend it as an honest remedy. Yours truly, A. M. ARMSTRONG.

Bald Knob.

Mr. W. R. Clark is putting a new roof on his house, a much needed improvement.

Messrs. J. F. Lee and G. W. Green have commenced sowing their wheat at last.

Brother Smith says he received one hundred and twenty additions in one night. Nearly as well as he did at Stony Creek.

The school of Mr. D. P. Bentley at this place is in a flourishing condition, with an average daily attendance of sixty-six scholars.

We have a first rate subject for the law to work on in this neighborhood in the shape of a man who mistrusts his wife and stepson.

Messrs. Willis and J. W. Reeves, of Pleasantville, were down in this section the first of the week, on the lookout for wheat. Hope they were successful in their hunt.

Messrs. D. P. Bentley and J. R. Fears will hold a debate at Stony Creek school house on the third Saturday night in November. The latter is invited to attend, the ladies especially.

A fight occurred here, on Wednesday, between Sol. Aldridge and Arthur Mahoney in which the former drew a knife on the latter, who struck him with a base ball bat. Friends interfered and separated them before any serious damage was done.

The young ladies in this neighborhood are talking of holding a meeting for the purpose of taking into consideration the question "whether or not there exists any necessity for Messrs. D. P. Bentley, Henry Herrel, J. F. Lee, James Sanford, Wm. Green, and A. T. Harrod longer remaining single?" They will probably report the result of their deliberations to the next Legislature. X. Y. Z.

Bridgeport.

And still there's more to follow.

Pumpkin pies and 'postumes are ripe.

Apples are very scarce in this section.

Mr. Wilder Dupuy's house is about complete.

Ralph Armstrong is the boss cattle trader.

The Bridgeport school is in a prosperous condition.

Dr. George Reddish, of Frankfort, was in the village last week.

Miss Leona Jett, of the North Side, is visiting friends in this section.

Mr. — Roberts is very ill, scarcely any hopes of his recovery are entertained.

Mrs. Finaguan and Mrs. Dr. George Chinn are visiting relatives in Clark county.

Mr. Benj. Hieatt and wife, of Jacksonville, paid a visit to relatives in this section last week.

Misses Alma Seafeld and Bettie Wilson, of this place, are the guests of Mrs. Lizzie Parker this week.

Mr. Henry Parrent, of New Mexico, was in the Port last Sunday shaking hands with his many friends. Welcome home again, old boy.

Also by the same, on the same day, in Graceland, Mr. P. A. Crutcher, of this county, and Miss Ellen Bright, of Shelby. Many congratulations.

We inadvertently omitted the name of Capt. Geo. Sudluth in our last week's item as one of those who have considerably improved their homes by additional buildings, &c.

Roll of honor of Bridgeport school for week ending Oct. 27th, 1882: Lena Roberts, Lucy Brown, John Brown, Annie Dowden, Ruthie Roberts, Sallie Ruth Wilson, and Willie Russell.

A very large crowd assembled in the Bridgeport Christian Church last Wednesday, Oct. 25th, 1882, to witness a double marriage. The contracting parties being Mr. J. P. Morris and Miss Addie Crockett, and Mr. S. O. Crockett and Miss Fannie Bradley. The ceremony was performed by Elder George D. Hare, of Frankfort, in his usual impressive style. After the congratulations of their many friends the happy couples left for a short tour. May their honeymoon be life-long.

No matter how shattered the system may be from excesses of any kind, the Great German Invigorator will secure health and happiness. See advertisement. For sale by Jos. LeCompte, South Side.

Is it not time that a determined effort was being made to put a stop to the regular Saturday or Sunday shootings?

Rev. Green Clay Smith has resigned the charge of the Baptist Church in Mt. Sterling, his resignation to take effect the first of December. He will remove to Louisville and take charge of a church recently organized there.

The Sunday law system has about spent its force in this city. It does not usually last more than a week or two at a time. What sense is there in having such a law if it is not enforced? The police are not to blame, they have done their part faithfully.

At the recent meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge at Louisville, a resolution was adopted asking the Grand Chapter and Grand Commandery to adopt measures making a demit from a Blue Lodge work the same disability in those lodges, as a suspension from a lodge now does.

A scaffold, upon which were six bricklayers and a number of other laborers, at Georgetown, fell one day last week, a distance of thirty feet, and, strange to say, beyond a few bruises, the party all escaped serious injury. Col. J. V. Downing was one of the lucky ones this time.

Mr. T. J. Sheppard of Mt. Sterling, has been in the city this week looking around with a view to locating a branch jewelry and watch making establishment in our midst. Mr. S. is an enterprising business man and a clever fellow, and we will gladly welcome him to our city should he decide to remain.

Elder B. B. Tyler has received and accepted a call to take charge of a Christian Church in New York City. The church building is now being erected, and when completed will cost $100,000. Elder Tyler is to receive a large salary and will take charge of the church the middle of next June. His many friends in this city will be glad to hear of his good fortune.

The usual shooting scrape took place Saturday night. Will, Ellis and Simon Condy, both colored, got into a fight, and Ellis got Condy down and was pummeling him soundly, when Bob Green, also colored, came up and struck Ellis over the head with a stick, cutting an ugly gash. Ellis went home, got his shotgun, came back and emptied a load of No. 5 shot into Green's right side, inflicting a dangerous wound.

The celebrated damage suit of Mrs. Mary Owens against Gen. J. P. Nichols came up in the Circuit Court Monday morning. Judge P. U. Major was sworn of the bench by the plaintiff, and Judge Allen-Duval was selected as a special judge to sit in the case. A jury was empaneled and the taking of evidence was begun in the afternoon and the case continued to occupy the time of the court until Thursday when a verdict for the defendant was rendered.

The presentation of the opera of Patience by the Lexington Amateur Comic Opera Company, at Major Opera House, Saturday night, was a splendid success. The singing and acting were both far superior to that of the professional troupe, who rendered the same opera in this city last winter, and many of the performers were loudly cheered. Miss Richardson, as Patience, was the simple country maiden to perfection, while Miss De Rood's Lady Angela was splendid. Mr. J. Hull Davidson's Bunthorne was very good, and Mr. Will Sayre's Grovenor could not be excelled. Miss Sietrecht, as Lady Jane, was not so very massive, but filled her role exceedingly well.

Those who failed to attend missed a great treat. Should the company come again they will have a crowded house.

Kelley's Island, Ohio, March 28th 1880.—I have used Kennedy's Spanin Cure on a bone spavin, and am pleased to report that it has taken the enlargement completely off. It took only one bottle to perform the cure. I am confident it is properly used. I will do all you claim for it. Yours truly, C. M. LINCOLN.

Frankfort is fast gaining a reputation for murder and promiscuous shooting second to no mining camp in the West.

Elders Darsie and Lamar took in Taylor-ton this week, and were surprised at the extent of the buildings—describing the place as "a new warehouse," &c.

The Yeoman, in his statement Thursday, "no rain for thirty days," certainly must not count the shower Wednesday night of last week.

The celebrated Woodson & Allen Minstrel Troupe will appear at Major Opera House Tuesday evening next. Save your nickles and enjoy the fun.

The Hessian fly is playing havoc with the wheat and other small grain in the eastern part of this county. Many farmers have been compelled to sow their grain a second time, while others are trusting to a hard winter and close grazing in the spring to save their crops.

Two gentlemen of the colored persuasion "raised Cain" down in "Craw," on Thursday morning. It appears that Joseph Hoskins lunched against the tiger at James Robinson's, and got left. He became very rancorous thereat, and determined that nothing short of gore would heal his wounded "monah." The consequence was that all Craw got on its car and made that region howl with calls for "perlies," etc. Elders Rippe and Smith politely invited the gentlemen to the cooler, after which his honor, Judge Saad, interviewed the young gentlemen, and requested a deposit from their purses for the benefit of the city. Hoskins being called for $10 and costs, for disturbing the peace and Robinson $100 and costs for keeping a gambling house. Not having sufficient solid wealth to meet the call or copper it, they both now gracefully ornament the stonepile at Castle Williams. We guess that their ire will have full time to subside ere they are once more allowed to perambulate the rosy lanes of Craw.

Call.

Mrs. R. C. Church, Lewis Mangon, and J. E. Miles.

If you will consent to become candidates for City Councilmen in the Second Ward, you will be supported heartily by the voters of said ward. A VOTER.

If Catarrh has destroyed your sense of smell and hearing, Hall's Catarrh Cure will cure you. 75 cents per bottle. Druggist sell it.

The suicidal mania is spreading in this community. Another young man attempted to drown himself Sunday.

Enforce the Sunday law strictly and see if there will not be a decrease in the number of Sunday rows and shootings.

Mr. Albert G. Jeffers has purchased of Mr. John C. Noel the place known as the old Stephens place, two miles from this city, for which he paid $7,500.

The protracted meeting at Providence Baptist Church, this county, closed on Sunday night last, with twenty-two additions, of which number fourteen were by baptism.

There was a pitched battle Saturday night between a party of bricklayers and some mill hands, in the lower part of town, and the way Craw howled for a time was scandalous.

The protracted meeting at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, Steadman town, is still in progress. There had been twelve additions to the church at last accounts.

Miss Bettie Stewart, eldest daughter of Dr. J. Q. A. Stewart, and Dr. W. A. L. Robinson will be married at the Presbyterian Church, on Tuesday, at 12 o'clock, M.

The steamer City of Frankfort now runs through from this city to Louisville, instead of stopping at Madison, Indiana. She comes up on Tuesday and Friday and returns on Wednesday and Sunday.

On Saturday night thieves entered the hog pen on the farm of Mr. A. C. Keenan, near this city, and killed one of the finest and fattest hogs in it. They started to cut it off, but they left it at the gate, being evidently frightened away.

In another column will be found a call upon Messrs. R. C. Church, Lewis Mangum, and John E. Miles to become candidates for Councilmen in the Second Ward. No better men could be found to represent that part of the city, as they reside, one in the centre, and the others in the extreme ends of the ward, and can thus know the wants of all, and are gentlemen who will look to the best interests of their constituents.

Mr. John O'Donnell, a young man well known in this city, took an overdose of morphine Wednesday morning about 11 o'clock. As soon as it was discovered that he had taken the poison medical aid was summoned and everything was done to relieve him, but to no avail. He died about three o'clock in the afternoon. He was a splendid salesman, and for a long time was employed in the establishment of Mr. Sol. Harris, but of late years had become greatly addicted to drink and had been on a prolonged spree at the time he took the drug that put an end to his existence, and it is believed that he took it for the purpose of quieting his nerves. We are authorized to say that the statement telegraphed from this city to the Louisville and Cincinnati papers, that he attempted to poison his mother's family the evening before is wholly false and without foundation in fact as he was not at home all day Tuesday night late at night, and could not have put poison in the milk used as supper, for it was obtained of a neighbor only a short time before the family sat down to the table.

DIED.

At the Capital Hotel, in Frankfort Ky., on the 16th, at 12 m., of malarial fever, Fannie D. Woritt.

She was an affable young girl of sixteen summers, much beloved by her classmates and friends, and closely attached to her guardian, Mrs. Alice Lobban, who loved her with a motherly affection. Her short life was a happy one, and before the storm clouds of this life lowered, she caught sight of that celestial city, and has passed the vale of shadows. Fannie boded in time to bloom in eternity.

The following lines are respectfully dedicated to William H. Russell. Fannie's young face was fair with youth, Bright with promise and sweet with truth. 'Twas her morn of life, the sun just up, Spilling its life like an o'er filled cup. Glad and gay was life while lingered May; Too dearly we loved her, God took her away.

In my garden of roses, bending low, With lovely blossoms as pure as snow, Another favorite bud now its pericet bloom, As I looked at its promise and sweet perfume, Said: 'Rough winters are coming, I cannot stay, Death treadeth on our blossom and she passed away.'

I looked on a heart bowed down with woe, Bent o'er with sorrow like a bough with snow, I said: 'May God come to this mighty grief, Heavenly Father send comfort and sweet relief. 'Aching heart, you'll find 'twas best, some day, God loved her best so he took her away. L. H. NEWMAN.
